STATE OF NEW JERSEY

Sales & Use Tax Exemption for Purchase of Electric Vehicle

Short Description: Sales and use tax exemption for the purchase or lease of an electric vehicle. The purchaser must complete an Exempt Use Certificate (ST-4) and provide it to the seller.

Beneficiary: Purchaser or Lessee of a qualified electric vehicle in the State of New Jersey

Type of Incentive: Sales & Use tax exemption,

Effective Dates: Current benefit, no sunset date

Value of Benefit: The amount of the exemption is based on the current New Jersey sales tax rate. Form ST-4 is to be filled out to claim the benefit (reproduced below). If the vehicle is leased, the lessor should provide a Form ST-40 to the lessee in order for the lessee to claim the benefit (reproduced below).

Full Description:

Zero emission vehicles sold, rented, or leased in New Jersey are exempt from state sales and use tax. This exemption is not applicable to partial zero emission vehicles, including hybrid electric vehicles. This exemption is also not available to labor or parts for qualified vehicles. The definition of "sale" in the law includes rentals and leases. Thus, the exemption is applicable to the sale, rental, or lease of a new or used zero-emission motor vehicle on or after May 1, 2004. Zero Emission Vehicles are defined as vehicles certified as such by the California Air Resources Board. The zero emission vehicles can either be new or used.

In order to document the exemption for the sale or rental of a qualified Zero Emission Vehicle, the customer should complete an Exempt Use Certificate (ST-4) and insert the statutory reference "N.J.S.A. 54:32B-8.55"

A lessee who can claim sales and use tax exemption may pass it along to the lessor who, upon receipt of the Exempt Use Certificate (ST-4), will not be liable for the lessor's use tax. The lessor should complete the Lessor's Certification (ST-40), and provide the form to the lessee.

SALES TAX EXEMPTION - ZERO EMISSION VEHICLES (ZEV) (N.J.S.A. 54:32B-8.55)

The New Jersey Sales and Use Tax Act provides a sales and use tax exemption for zero emission vehicles (ZEVs), which are vehicles certified pursuant to the California Air Resources Board zero emission standards for the model year.

The exemption is NOT applicable to partial zero emission vehicles, which includes hybrids such as the Toyota Prius and Honda Civic Hybrid. The exemption is also NOT applicable to labor or parts for qualified vehicles.

The definition of "sale" in the law includes rentals and leases. Thus, the exemption is applicable to the sale, rental or lease of a new or used zero emission motor vehicle on and after May 1, 2004.

Motor Vehicle Dealers, Leasing and Rental Companies and Other Vendors:

In order to document the exemption for the sale or rental of a qualified zero emission vehicle, the customer should complete an Exempt Use Certificate (ST-4) and insert the statutory reference "N.J.S.A. 54:32B-8.55."

The following vehicles have been certified by the Commissioner of the New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection (DEP) as qualified Zero Emission Vehicles and thus, are exempt from New Jersey sales and use tax:

INSTRUCTIONS FOR USE OF EXEMPT USE CERTIFICATES - ST-4

- 1. Good Faith - To act in good faith means to act in accordance with standards of honesty. In general, registered sellers who accept exemption certificates in good faith are relieved of liability for the collection and payment of sales tax on the transactions covered by the exemption certificate.

In order for good faith to be established, the following conditions must be met:

- (a) Certificate must contain no statement or entry which the seller knows is false or misleading;
- (b) Certificate must be an official form or a proper and substantive reproduction, including electronic;
- (c) Certificate must be filled out completely;
- (d) Certificate must be dated and include the purchaser's New Jersey tax identification number or, for a purchaser that is not registered in New Jersey, the Federal employer identification number or out-of-State registration number. Individual purchasers must include their driver's license number; and
- (e) Certificate or required data must be provided within 90 days of the sale.

The seller may, therefore, accept this certificate in good faith as a basis for exempting sales to the signatory purchaser and is relieved of liability even if it is determined that the purchaser improperly claimed the exemption.

- 2. Improper Certificate - Sales transactions which are not supported by properly executed exemption certificates are deemed to be taxable retail sales. In this situation, the burden of proof that the tax was not required to be collected is upon the seller.
- 3. Retention of Certificates - Certificates must be retained by the seller for a period of not less than four years from the date of the last sale covered by the certificate. Certificates must be in the physical possession of the seller and available for inspection on or before the 90th day following the date of the transaction to which the certificate relates.
- 4. Common exempt uses of property or services for which the ST-4 is applicable follow.

NOTE: The descriptions are general and do not necessarily cover every exempt use or service or every condition for exemption. Further information is available from the Division of Taxation.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR USE OF LESSOR CERTIFICATION

1. Good Faith -

In general, a person who accepts an exemption certificate in "good faith" is relieved of liability for payment of tax upon the sale or lease transaction covered by the certificate. The question of "good faith" is one of fact and depends upon a consideration of all the conditions surrounding the transaction.

In order for "good faith" to be established, the following conditions must be met:

- (a) The certificate must contain no statement or entry which the person knows, or has reason to know, is false or misleading.
- (b) The certificate must be an officially promulgated certificate form or a proper reproduction thereof.
- (c) The certificate must be dated and executed in accordance with the published instructions, and must be complete and regular in every respect.

2. Improper Certificate -

Lease transactions that are not supported by properly executed certificates may subject the lessee to tax liability on the total of the payments due under the lease. Sales transactions not supported by properly executed certificates shall be deemed to be taxable retail sales.

3. Retention of Certificates -

Certificates must be retained by the lessee and lessor for a period of not less than three years from the date of the termination of the lease covered by the certificate. Certificates must be in the physical possession of the lessee and available for inspection on or before the 60th day following the date of the transaction to which the certificate relates.

4. Reproduction of ST-40 Certificate forms -

Private reproduction of ST-40 Certificates may be made without the prior permission of the Division of Taxation provided that both sides of the certificate are reproduced.

5. Issuance of Certificate -

The lessor must complete and execute this certification and give it to the lessee on all applicable lease transactions. If the lease is assigned to a bank or other financial institution, this certification must be provided to the assignee.

6. Lessee Certificate Issuance -

If the lessor claims exemption, he must receive and keep with this certification a copy of the lessee's exemption certificate: In the case of exempt use, an Exempt Use Certificate (Form ST-4). In the case of an exempt organization, an Exempt Organization Certificate (Form ST-5) or in the case of motor vehicle, vessel or aircraft, Form ST-10, ST-10V or ST-10A.

PRIVACY ACT NOTIFICATION

The Federal Privacy Act of 1974 requires all agencies requesting information to inform individuals from whom it seeks information why the request is being made and how the information is being used. Your social security number is used primarily to account for and give credit for tax payments. It is also used in the administration and enforcement of all tax laws for which the Division of Taxation has statutory responsibility.
